

14 & 15 JUNE 2019

Live classical music from 7.00pm
Performance starts at 7.30pm

THE MOUNT | CHURCH RD
EVERSLEY
HAMPSHIRE | RG27 0PX

World Première

starring Lucinda Cox as Andromeda and David Jones as Perseus

Andromeda

AN UNMISSABLE OUTDOOR PERFORMANCE

The Andromeda legend was the inspiration for Kingsley's poem written in 1858. Set to music in 1905 by Cyril Rootham (1875-1938), it was 'lost' for over 100 years. Our production features an exciting new orchestration by Dan Keen, commissioned specifically for the ck200 Festival.

Conducted by Benedict Kearns and produced by Julia Stutfield

The performance lasts 90 minutes (including an introductory talk) and, in addition to soloists, chorus & orchestra, will feature:

- Giant puppet
- Aerial artists
- Dance troupe

BRING YOUR FOLDING CHAIR, RUG AND A PICNIC

ADULTS £15 | STUDENTS £10
DISABLED £10 | CHILDREN FREE
(Under 18)

For tickets, please visit

ck200.live

CANTATA DRAMATICA

Supported using public funding by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

OUTDOOR OPERA SPECTACULAR | THEATRE | PUPPETS | TALKS | PAGEANT | FOOD & DRINK

with Charles Kingsley's School